

CHAPTER 5

INDIVIDUALS AND AGENCIES CONTACTED

NEPA regulations require that federal, state, and local agencies with jurisdiction or special expertise regarding environmental impacts be consulted and involved in the NEPA process. Agencies involved include those with authority to issue permits, licenses, and other regulatory approvals. Other agencies include those responsible for protecting significant resources such as endangered species or wetlands. The individuals and agencies listed below were contacted during the preparation of this EA.
